Kay Hill King was born in Texas, USA in 1966. Sired by the legendary King bred stallion Zantanon H (A top sire of arena performers) and out of the mare Miss Paula Kay who was by Hill King. Kay Hill King carried two crosses of King.

One of the first group of mares imported to Australia by the Winderadeen Corporation, along with Beggar Bingo, Kay Hill King has become a major part in the foundation of the famous broodmare band at Winderadeen.

Coming with her on the boat to Australia was her daughter, by Beggar Bingo, Bingos Babe who became the dam of: Just A Babe - AQHA Champion, Shady Babe - AQHA Champion & AQHA Youth Champion, Jet A Babe - AQHA Champion, Superior Western Pleasure, Booms Babe - Winner Sires Classic Pleasure Futurity as a 2 yr old. Babes Beggar - AQHA Champion, Jet Babe - Dam of top 1998 Western Pleasure 2 yr old, Got The Blues.

Kay Hill Kings second foal was the immortal Kay Bingo. This mare was to take out the honour of not only winning the Champion mare but Supreme Halter exhibit at the first ever Australian Quarter Horse Championships. A final day attendance of 6000 with yet another 5000 turned away from the Melbourne Showground illustrated the massive publicity campaign to present the breed to the general public. The well performed daughter of Kay Hill King looked immaculate despite, according to Phil Webb, the difficult time of year for Southern horses (July), but Kay Bingo looked every bit the champion of champions. Proving she was not only a good looker the mare partnered Tania Palmer to three National Titles. Excelling in her field of Western Pleasure Kay Bingo made a name for herself as a great ambassador for the Quarter Horse breed. Kay Bingo joined the Winderadeen broodmare band carrying a bag full of credentials. She already had made a name for herself as a halter and performance ambassador for the breed but went on to pass on her qualities to her 14 progeny: Riskay Boom - High Point Horse of Australia and dam of High Point Horse of Australia - Golden Elms Happy As Larry. Bingos Profit - AQHA Champion, AQHA Youth Champion, Superior Halter & Performance Horse. Winderadeen Mickay Boom - AQHA Champion & Superior Western Pleasure.
